WEEKEND FIXTURES VITAL TO ALL FIRST DIV. CLUBS

The eighth round of the premiership competition this weekend will be the most interesting one so far.

None of the teams can afford to drop a point and dogged "fights" are anticipated at every match.

It is possible that, due to the arrangement of matches, this weekend may change many positions on the table.

STAR PARADE

Ron Lord - Australia

Seldom has a player commanded such unanimous praise and respect as Prague's and Australia's top goalkeeper, Ron Lord.

Lord, 31, has a long career behind him and his only regret is that he is not 10 years younger as he fully realises the tremendous potential in Australia for a talented up-and-coming footballer.

As a youngster he played for Drummoyne as a forward and showed promise in that position.

One day, however, he was asked to replace the regular goalie and has never left the sticks since.

His whole first grade soccer career has been with only two clubs — Auburn and Prague.

While playing for old Association club Auburn, Lord represented Australia on many occosions and since 1953 has been considered Australia's top goalie.

He was a member of Australia's first Olympic soccer team in Melbourne in 1956 and was one of the best players in the side.

Overseas players and managers rate him as one of the best goalkeepers they met anywhere in their travels and there can be no doubt that most top European clubs would only be too happy to have a goalie of his calibre on their books.

Turning point

However, the turning point in his soccer career came with the advent of the Federation.

Prague succesfully bid for his services and what a stalwart he has been for them.

Time and again he has saved them from certain defeat with his wonderful anticipation and timely saves.

Just as Leo Baumgartner is the yardstick by which forwards are rated in Sydney, goalies have Ron Lord to measure up against.

But, all has not been smooth sailing for Prague's skipper as he faced heartbreak when he badly injured a knee in 1957.

That injury kept him out of the game for three months and 1958 saw him again injured in the Federation Cup final at the Sports Ground when Prague, one up with 15 minutes to go, were subsequently beaten by the odd goal by Canterbury.

Untimely injury

That untimely injury, together with last season's grand final defeat, are Lord's most unpleasant memories, which might go a long way to explain why he considers Canterbury his "bogey" team.

Lord reckons he still has four seasons left in him and soccer fans sincerely hope that his yellow jersey and flaming hair will be a sight on our grounds for a long time yet.

Players such as Ron Lord are a credit to the code.

Not only is he Australia's greatest local-born soccer player, in any position, but also a thorough gentleman and the idol of thousands of schoolboys.

Leaders may drop points

Wiley Park should thrill to the encounter between Bankstown and Gladesville in the only match on Saturday.

A lot will depend on the forwards as both sets of defenders are a capable lot.

I anticipate a low scoring game swinging Bankstown's way as I feel, their forwards, particularly Haniotis, Wainwright and Yates, will be more dangerous than the Villes, whose forwards have been really off-the-beam these last weeks.

A win for the Towns would place them high on the ladder, and that should be enough to spur on Madden's boys.

On Sunday APIA, the team-of-the-moment, will be in serious trouble at Woonoona, but I do not expect the vastly improved South Coast United to open their winnig account, yet.

APIA are really shaping up into their best combination ever and Baumgartner is bound to try his utmost to impress his former team-mates.

Jim Kelly, however, will have different ideas and their personal duel will highlight this match.

Pan Hellenic and last year's Premiers, Canterbury, will turn on a "no beg pardons" tactical struggle at Wentworth Park.

Both teams are experiencing a slump.

A win for either is vital and as Brian Smith is reported to be fit and ready to resume his place in the side, Canterbury could take both points.

Pan Hellenic's attack is too lethargic to enable the team to play a leading part in the competition and miracles cannot be expected of the defence, on its own.

Yet, Toussis, Patrinos and Mavro will prove a difficult half-back trio for the youthful Berries.

Eye-pleasing football

Budapest, second to Prague, play host to their immediate rivals, Hakoah, in a match which promises eye-pleasing soccer.

Budapest continue to amaze experts by doing so well, but on Sunday they will face their toughest test to date.

If Budapest wins they have it nearly "made", as they will have gained a 3-point lead over Hakoah and will clearly be stamped as a premiership contender.

Hakoah badly need a win after two consecutive draws.

The team seems "lost" without Jaros, their "general", and the forwards are displaying an alarming lack of purpose.

Budapest play a much livelier style of soccer and if they strike good form should win.

However, bearing in mind that consistency is not Budapest's major quality, I forecast yet another draw for Hakoah.

Polonia-North Side will have to be on its toes if Sydney Austral are not to open their account at its expense.

Sydney Austral are showing marked improvement thanks to Bosklopper's return and the fine current form of Adrian Smith, Van Sitteren and goalie Jan Bout.

Bout will be Polonia's greatest threat and Galeczka and Co. will have to be at their best to score the comfortable win most fans are expecting.

Polonia should return to the winning list but their opponents will be anything but willing victims.

Auburn, always hard to toss at home, will have to play at full strength and pace to topple leaders Prague.

Prague, although clear leaders, are only scraping home these days and marked improvement on their last two matches has to be shown if Auburn's scalp is to be added their belt.

These two have always staged great battles at Mona Park and the same should be the case on Sunday.

Van Gaalen, Quested and goalie Henderson have a king-size task in keeping Prague's formidable inside-trio at bay.

After seven rounds, the competition table in First Division is beginning to split a little wider.

The first four teams have opened a gap between themselves and the rest of the field and are conducting a fierce battle for the lead.

The next group includes six teams, seperated by only three points.

APIA is now in this bunch, having won its last three matches with a goal average of 12:0!

The two tailenders last weekend gave notice that things may soon begin to took up for them.

In Second Division Yugal, with a dramatic win at Macarthur Park, has established itself the leader by four clear points.

Last weekend Julia recorded its first win and this may be followed by others now that they have got going.

Penrith jumped to the lead in Third Division, where some teams have played seven, others only five matches.

Oddities

However, on the basis of lost points, three teams stand better than Penrith: Sydney University, Juventus and Lansvale.

Some odd items from the tables:

- In First Division Prague and Auburn have conceded the fewest goals:— 9 each.
- The first team of Sydney Austral and the third team of Pan Hellenic have absolutely identical scorecards: seven losses and 7:31 goal average.
- All the three teams with a 100 per cent record are in Second Division: Yugal's first, Corinthians and Granville's second teams.
- The most successful First Division club to date is Prague; the aggregate placing of their three teams is six, the next best being Auburn with 11; the weakest is Pan Hellenic (aggregate 32) and Sydney Austral (31).

EDITORIAL

HOW IT DID ALL (NOT) HAPPEN . . .

Sydney soccer administrators cannot be blamed for the collapse of arrangements for the touring English FA team to play an exhibition game against a Federation XI at Sydney Athletic Field last Saturday.

● All arrangements were made thoroughly and in good faith — with the backing of English FA secretary, Sir Stanley Rous.

It was at only very short notice that the manager of the touring team, Mr J. Bowers, on his own authority, declared the game would not go on as scheduled.

● This was a great disappointment alike to administrators and the general public, and particularly the junior organisations which stood to benefit.

● To set the record straight, here are the facts:

● The Federation requested and received the approval of Sir Stanley Rous for an unofficial exhibition game to be played in Sydney.

In its letter theFederation suggested to Sir Stanley a complete itinerary for the touring team while it was in Sydney, including a 2 x 35 minutes exhibition match against Sydney's select XI.

Sir Stanley replied by cable: "Agreed arrangements".

● Leaving nothing to chance, the Federation informed the tourists directly of the arrangements.

A letter detailing all arrangements was delivered by special Quantas service to Mr Bowers, then in Hongkong.

● In the meantime, Sir Stanley advised the touring team of the arrangements by letter.

He also notified the Federation that he had done this.

● However, it was not known until the Saturday morning of the proposed exhibition game that Mr Bowers held different views on the matter.

It had not been envisaged at any time that he would over-rule Sir Stanley and veto the game.

This decision came as a shock to local officials, as Mr Bowers had had plenty of time to advise them earlier of his views.

● We must express our admiration for the Federation and Junior Association for doing their utmost to make the Englishmen welcome to Sydney, even after the refusal of Mr Bowers to allow his team to play.

● But we also have to express our indignation over the attitude of Mr Bowers, who, having made a decision not to play, failed to advise the organisers in time to cancel arrangements, thus causing much embarrassment and financial loss to the Federation.

● However, it seems that this unfortunate happening has served a purpose after all.

It has united soccer in Sydney more than ever before and put the public right behind the Federation.

ENGLAND

Englands manager Walter Winterbottom's long-range team building plans begin to pay off.

The team which he has kept together for some time now, despite some poor performances, trashed Mexico 8:0 at Wembley Stadium.

However, England has new problems.

After Greaves, who went to Italy, several other topflight stars are also reported to be on their way there for huge sums.

These, even if their Italian clubs would release them occasionally, would be lost for English soccer as, by tradition, no player who plays abroad is selected for England.

SOVIET UNION

If you ever wonder what happened to that blond Russian centreforward from the 1956 Olympic team that came to Melbourne, here is the answer: Eduard Streltsow serves a 12-year jail sentence for rape.

He was sentenced in 1957 and released two years later on "bond".

However, as he was unable to mend his ways, the Russians put him back in to prison.

Former "cast-offs", Mikhail Ogonkov and Boris Tatushin, again star for their club, Spartak Moscow.

In 1958 they were suspended for some mysterious reason and were out of circulation for three years.

YUGOSLAVIA

DRAGOSLAV SEKULAREC of Red Star Belgrade, who last October received an 18-month suspension, filled in time by playing ice hockey for his club.

Although not as skilful on ice as on grass, he managed to double the weekly attendances by his personal appearance.

Now, on an appeal by his club, his suspension has been lifted and Sekularec can again appear in his club's soccer team.

Yugoslavia's ice hockey attendances will soon return to normal . . .

WEST GERMANY

UWE SEELER, the brilliant German centre forward of Hamburg, has been offered huge sums to leave his homeland for more lucrative professional careers.

However, the 25-years-old salesman turned down all offers and announced that he would remain in Germany until after the 1962 World Cup.

World Cup summary

The battle to reach the Finals of the 1962 World Cup is on.

The elimination matches started in 1960 and will finish at the end of 1961.

A total of 56 countries nominated their teams but because of withdrawals this dwindled down to 49.

The home team, Chile, and the 1958 World Champions, Brazil, did not have to take part in the elimination rounds but will enter the final pool of 16 automatically.

The others were drawn into groups where they had to play a round-robin to determine the winner.

Each team in a group meets all the others twice: once home, once away.

If two teams finish up with the same number of points in a group, the third, deciding match will be played by them at a neutral ground.

However, if even after that there is no decision, the country with a better goal average in the pool will qualify.

So far these countries have qualified for the finals: Chile, Brazil, Argentina and Columbia.

On results so far it is more than likely that they will be joined by West Germany, Hungary, England, Italy, Spain and Paraguay.

The position in the other groups is still wide open.

Of all the notable soccer powers of the world only Austria and Rumania failed to nominate for the Cup.

Australia has never yet entered a World Cup competition

Below we publish a full and up-to-date picture of the various qualifying groups.

GROUP I

1. Sweden	2	—	—	6	—	4
2. Switzerland	2	—	1	6	7	4
3. Belgium	—	—	3	3	8	—

Results so far: Sweden v. Belgium 2:0; Belgium v. Switzerland 2:4; Switzerland v. Belgium 2:1; Sweden v. Switzerland 4:0.

Yet to play: Belgium v. Sweden (Brussels, Oct. 4), Switzerland Sweden (Basel, Oct. 29).

Sweden appears the strongest of the three and should carry this group although Switzerland cannot be counted out.

GROUP II

1. France	2	—	—	5	1	4
2. Finland	—	—	1	1	2	—
3. Bulgaria	—	—	1	—	3	—

Results so far: Finland v France 1:2; France v. Bulgaria 3:0.

Yet to play: Finland v. Bulgaria (Helsinki, June 16 and Sofia, Oct. 29); France v. Finland (Paris, Sept. 27); Bulgaria v. France (Sofia, Nov 12) ....

It seems certain that the decisive match will be Bulgaria v. France at Sofia.

A draw would carry France to the finals, but if they lose, a third match between them will be necessary.

GROUP III

1. W.Germany	3	—	—	9	4	6
2. Greece	1	—	1	2	4	2
3. N. Ireland	—	—	3	5	8	—

Results so far: N. Ireland v. W. Germany 3:4; Greece v. W. Germany 0:3; Greece v. N. Ireland 2:1; W. Germany v. N. Ireland 2:1.

Yet to play: Germany v. Greece (Frankfurt); N. Ireland v. Greece (Belfast).

West Germany are almost certain to qualify.

GROUP IV

1. Hungary	2	—	—	5	—	4
2. E.Germany	—	1	1	1	3	1
3. Holland	—	1	1	1	4	1

Results so far: Hungary v. E. Germany 2:0; Holland v Hungary 0:3; E. Germany v. Holland 1:1.

Yet to play: E. Germany v. Hungary (Dresden, Sept. 10); Holland v. E. Germany (Rotterdam, Oct. 1); Hungary v. Holland (Budapest, Oct. 22).

Hungary must now be odds — on favorite to reach the final 16.

GROUP V

No matches have yet been played.

This is the program: Soviet Union v. Turkey (Moscow, June 18 — Istanbul, Nov. 12); Norway v. Turkey (Oslo, June 1 — Istanbul, Oct. 29); Soviet Union v. Norway (Moscow, July 1 — Oslo, Aug. 23).

The "paperform" suggest a Soviet win, though the Turks are preparing for a surprise.

GROUP VI

1. England	1	1	—	10	1	3
2. Portugal	1	1	—	7	1	3
3. Luxemburg	—	—	2	—	15	—

Results so far: Luxemburg v England 0:9; Portugal v. Luxemburg 6:0; Portugal v. England 1:1.

Yet to play: Luxemburg v. Portugal (Luxemburg); England v. Luxemburg (London); England v. Portugal (London).

A win at Wembley against Portugal would be enough for England to make the finals.

GROUP VII

Because of the withdrawal of Rumania, Italy has only the winner of sub-group to play to qualify.

SUBGROUP

Cyprus v. Israel 1:1; 1:6.

Israel qualified to meet Ethiopia — results: Israel v. Ethiopia 1:0; 3:2.

Israel will now meet Italy.

Italy must be favored to defeat Israel for the right to qualify.

GROUP VIII

1. Scotland	2	—	1	7	5	4
2. C'slovakia	1	—	—	4	—	2
3. Eire	—	—	2	1	7	—

Results so far: Scotland v. Eire 4:1 and 3:0; Czechoslovakia v. Scotland 4:0.

Yet to play: Eire v. Czechoslovakia (Dublin, Oct. 8 — Prague, Oct. 22); Scotland v. Czechoslovakia (Glasgow, Sept. 30).

Despite Scotland's big defeat at Prague, they still have a chance if in the return match they beat the Czechs and if the latter also drop a point at Dublin.

GROUP IX

Wales v. Spain 1:2; Spain v. Wales 1:1.

The winner — Spain — will meet winner of sub-groups.

SUBGROUP "A"

Sudan, United Arab Republic. (Both withdrew).

SUBGROUP "B"

Ghana v. Nigeria 2:2 and 4:1.

SUBGROUP "C"

Morocco v. Tunis 2:1 and 1:2

Winner of third match will play Ghana for right to play Spain.

Spain is the likely winner of this group.

GROUP X

Only contestants are Yugoslavia and Poland.

On June 4 they meet in Belgrade, on June 25 in Warsaw.

The winner will meet the qualifier from sub-group.

SUBGROUP

South Korea v. Japan 2:1.

No date yet for return match.

Yugoslavia is more likely than anybody else to come through.

GROUP XI

Argentina v. Ecuador 5:0 and 6:3.

Argentina has thus qualified.

GROUP XII

Only contestants are Uruguay and Bolivia.

The winner will qualify.

No dates yet for matches.

Uruguay, twice World Champions are strongly favored.

GROUP XIII

Columbia v. Peru 1:0 and 1:1.

Columbia has thus qualified.

GROUP XIV

Paraguay will play a one-match "round-robin" with winners of three subgroups, that is Mexico, Costa Rica and the Antilles.

SUBGROUP "A"

Mexico v. USA 3:0 and 3:3; Mexico the winners.

SUBGROUP "B"

Winner: Costa Rica from Honduras and Guatemala.

SUBGROUP "C"

Antilles v. Surinam 2:1 and 0:0. Winner: Antilles.

Results so far in "round-robin": Costa Rica v. Antilles 8:0; Costa Rica v. Mexico 1:0; Mexico v. Costa Rica 4:1; Antilles v. Costa Rica 2:0.

Paraguay, participating of the 1958 World Cup finals, will probably again make the grade.

Junior Round-up

March past televised

By KEITH GILMOUR

Part of the junior's march at Sydney Athletic Field last Saturday was televised by Channel 2.

Due to the upset in the day's programme just over 1,000 boys paraded, as against a much higher estimate of participants.

However, as the first such event staged by combined junior organisations, it did prove a success.

Most longer-established Associations learnt a lot from the youngsters from Kuringai.

These boys looked excellent. Many wore modern styled football gear.

Most spectacular aspect was the use of brilliant club banners.

Many of these featured Australian motifs — koala bears, waratahs etc.

Another feature of the arrival of the English Football Association team in Sydney was the appearance of 22 lads at Sydney's Mascot Airport, all armed with toy koala bears for presentation to Tom Finney and the other members of the England party.

Championships

Entries for the 1961 State Junior Championships close on June 12.

Associations will vote at the next general meeting on a proposal to compete for a State under 21 title.

A further suggestion that State championships in yearly grades be commenced in 1962 has been referred to constituent organisations for examination.

Fijian tour

A crowd of 5,500 at Adamstown Oval enjoyed the Fijians' match last Saturday.

Their midfield play was excellent, but their goalscoring capacity let them down, when star forward, Dutta, had to leave the field with a leg injury.

Final score was 7:2 in favour of the North.

Considering that all games amongst Newcastle's 280 teams were played as scheduled, the crowd was excellent.

On Sunday Fiji downed North West N.S.W. by 5 goals to 2 at Tamworth.

The game was well contested, and surprisingly North West fought strongly at all times.

It is 37 years since the only previous overseas team to play at Tamworth, the Chinese, played their match there.

The crowd of 1700 is therefore very good, especially as the game had to be played at West Tamworth.

Following the game at Cessnock, the tourists will journey to Lismore, to play North Coast on Sunday, June 4.

The North Coast XI comprises a strong Lismore defence, with players from the Tweed and Beautizone Associations selected amongst the forwards.

Inter-Association trials took place between the three North Coast Associations to select the team.

The match against Queensland has been set down for Tuesday night June 6, under floodlights at the Brisbane Exhibition Ground.

Even allowing that Newcastle surprisingly applied club admission prices of 2/- to the outerground to last Saturday's game, the tour has so far grossed £5,000.

BOYS' TASMANIAN TRIP SUCCESS

The Under-14 representative side of the Gladesville-Hornsby Football Association have just returned from a victorious Tasmanian tour.

Of the seven matches played they won six and lost only one.

The team scored 26 goals and conceded only four.

Tasmanian soccer officials later expressed their belief that the tour had given great incentive to the local boys and strengthened the fast increasing standard in the "Island" State.

On their return, tour managers C.A. Follington and C. Lee spoke of the hospitable reception they had received in each city and of the publicity which accompanied the boys from town to town.

Here is the summary of their matches, versus:

Combined High Schools, Hobart: 4:0.

South Hobart: 1:2.

Hobart Rep. team: 3:0.

Launceston: 4:0.

Burnie Combined High Schools: 5:0.

Burnie Rep. team: 7:1.

Wagga (on the way home): 2:1.

SECOND DIVISION

By LES FARR

A big crowd saw a real thriller at McArthur Park last Sunday where Yugal came from behind to win with the score:—

GRANVILLE v. YUGAL 4:5

Two goals by Crelley in the first 15 minutes and Granville were off to a good start.

Mucillo reduced the deficit for Yugal with a fine header 3 minutes before half time only to see Dyer restore the home teams lead a minute later.

When Crelley scored his 3rd goal early in the second half to give Granville a 4:1 lead everyone said it was impossible for Yugal to win, everyoone that is except the Yugal players who fought back magnificently.

A penalty goal scored by Nincevich, a fine goal by Krstulovich then with 10 minutes to go Nincevich got the equaliser and the tension was at fever pitch.

Thirty seconds to go and Mucillo cracked one in from 35 yards and Yugal have achieved the impossible.

Toongabbie lost their third game in a row going down to Sutherland- St. George, the score being:—

T'GABBIE v. SUTHERL'D 0:2

A good goal by Craik midway through the first half gave the visitors a 1:0 lead at the interval.

Toongabbie pressed hard to get on terms but their forwards were ineffective and a goal by Rattenbury clinched the issue for Sutherland-St. George.

Concordia notched their first point of the season when they drew with Corinthians, the game ending:—

C'CORDIA v. CORINTH'S 1:1

Corinthians forwards missed many chances before they went a head with a penalty goal scored by Davies 10 minutes before half time.

A fine header by Lind put Concordia on terms in the 2nd half and the game finished with honours even.

Blacktown continued their good form with a fine win against Balgownie who they beat by:—

B'TOWN v. B'GOWNIE 2:1

An evenly contested 1st half in which the only goal came from Polonis to give Balgownie a 1:0 lead at half time.

Blacktown attacked strongly after the interval and drew level with a well placed shot by Pokrzywnicki.

A penalty goal by Dochnall 7 minutes from the end gave a narrow victory to Blacktown.

Julia gained their first win this year at the expense of Manly in a close game that ended:—

JULIA v. MANLY 4:3

Two goals by Sumbak for Manly with Rossi replying for Julia, and Manly led 2:1 at the interval.

Julia took the lead when first Pagano then Billi scored fine goals.

Collier levelled the scores for Manly but a goal by Rossi gave the home side a well deserved win.

Croatia were untroubled to win their game against Lidcombe the margin being:—

CROATIA v. LIDCOMBE 5:1

With Wesely laying on the passes for both Micich and Tomicic to score, Croatia led 2:0 at half time.

Wesely himself got number three and after Tribolet had scored a consolation goal for Lidcombe, Tomicic completed his hat trick with 2 fine goals to give Croatia a convincing win.

THIS WEEKEND

Yugal v. Balgownie at Concord Oval looks to be another thriller this Saturday and I pick Balgownie to win a close match.

Corinthians travel to Toongabbie and on current form a draw looks likely.

Blacktown who entertain Lidcombe at Francis Park should win and clinch their place in the first four.

Croatia should have little trouble to defeat Concordia at Jubilee Oval.

Granville who visits Manly should win by a narrow margin.

Julia now running into form should get a draw against Sutherland-St. George at Seymour Park.

SUMMING UP THE MATCHES

This was a much closer match than the score would suggest. In the first half Budapest were in domination and could have built up a bigger margin, mainly through the smooth combination of the left wing. However, the last 30 minutes were all Gladesville and with the score at 2:3, their equaliser seemed only moments away, when Schauman broke free and slipped the fourth goal past Hough. This sealed the match.

A fast, exciting game with fortunes continually fluctuating. Canterbury pressed desperately for most of the match but a great display by Bill Henderson kept the score down. Auburn's defence was superb and always cool under pressure. Canterbury played pretty football and were a trifle unlucky not to force a draw.

The score flatters APIA slightly as Pan Hellenic did have many goalscoring chances. Their forwards, however, frittered them all. Baumgartner again inspired his teammates to great heights. His generalship won the match. The match was played at a killing tempo and thrilled the capacity crowd. It was a clean match in which all concerned behaved in a fine sportsmanlike manner.

There was no fire and enthusiasm in the match. Sydney Austral played their best football of the season, particularly in the first half. Bankstown, well subdued in the first half, took over in the second, and from then on their win was never in doubt.

One of the best matches seen on the South Coast. It was a very even game which had the crowd roaring throughout. Prague staged a dramatic late rally to snatch the match. South Coast continues to improve and could have, easily, drawn the match had their wingers been more accurate with their crosses. Les Scheinflug was the very soul of Prague and it was fitting he scored the winnig goal just on full-time.

Both forward-lines gave ineffective displays and sharpshooters were sadly lacking. Hakoah had the upper hand in the first half and should have secured the match before half-time. Hakoah, also, had the dubious distinction of missing two penalties. Polonia N.S., on the other hand, made the most of theirs and forced a draw after a marked territorial domination late in the match.

FOR AND AGAINST

WE LIKED:

- Over 18,500 spectators watching First Division matches on Sunday.
- Perfect organisation and fine atmosphere at capacity-packed Lambert Park.
- The fine, eye-catching, pattern-soccer displayed by "Europe" and "Commonwealth" sides in lieu of the exhibition match with the F.A. team.

It was a great advertisement for soccer on TV.

- The "Heart Fund" collections organised by most clubs on Sunday.

WE DID NOT LIKE:

- Prague, having to "lend" nine players to Saturday's "make shift" match, obliged to play again a competition game the following day.

Interstate Round-up

- MELBOURNE -

From L. K. STONE

POLONIA 1
GEORGE CROSS 2

GOALSCORERS: Voros (Polonia); Zilinski, Abela (George Cross).

A good match in which changing fortunes provided the thrills for the Saturday bumper crowd.

The Maltese deserved to win because they were the fitter team but Polonia were perhaps a shade unlucky because they lost their reliable stopper Maruszkiewicz in the second half with a suspected broken nose

The game ended with a tired Polonia making a last minute bid to save the game but the solid George Cross defence in which Hobson was outstanding, stood firm to the final whistle.

Estimated attendance 8,000 at Olympic Park, Saturday.

MELBOURNE 0
SLAVIA 4

GOALSCORERS: Haacz 3, Cooke (Slavia).

Slavia performed the giant killing act of the day by completely outplaying the unpredictable Hungarians at Port Melbourne, the home ground of both these teams.

The Czechs had a match winning inside forward in Haacz who scored three times but their best player was their tireless wing half Glennie.

Melbourne, hot favourite before the game included Redpath, the former Tottenham Hotspur player who showed flashes of ability.

Estimated attendance 1,200 at Port Melbourne.

HAKOAH 4
JUVENTUS 0

GOALSCORERS: Eager 2, Neuhold, Thomas (Hakoah).

Revealing sparkling teamwork, Hakoah were too accomplished for Juventus and, particularly in the second half, had the Italians floundering.

Juventus relied too much on Griggs and Barbazza who did everything expected from them but the rest of the team failed to function as a unit.

Estimated attendance 3,000 at Middle Park.

J.U.S.T. 1
STH. MELB. HELLAS 3

GOALSCORERS: Beattie (JUST); Hazleeftheriou 2, Margarites, (Sth. Melb. Hellas).

Hellas, with their defence forming a stubborn barrier, defeated the Yugoslavs in a stirring struggle.

Referee Bartolo kept a tight reign and had the game well in hand, preventing the fireworks that were expected to develop during this encounter.

Estimated attendance 3,500 at Footscray.

WILHELMINA 2
BOX HILL 0

GOALSCORERS: Beerendonk, Stobbe (Wilhelmina).

Although this was potentially the strongest Wilhelmina side, Box Hill fought back gamely to give the League leaders a hard game.

The Hillmen had bad luck when they lost their defender White through injury early in the second half but good luck shortly afterwards when De Brueyekere failed to score from the penalty spot.

Best player on the field was Beerendonk who showed uncanny judgement and was the springboard of all Wilhelmina attacks.

Estimated attendance 900 at Hawthorne.

RICHMOND 1
MORELAND 1

GOALSCORERS: Schumacher (Richmond); Zubiani (Moreland).

The small attendance did not deter these two teams to put on a fast and entertaining performance though it was obvious that both teams had glaring weaknesses they cannot afford in order to survive in the State League.

A draw was a good result but Richmond could have won had their forwards exploited the defence weaknesses of the Morelanders.

Estimated attendance 350 at Olympic Track, West Heidelberg.

This is how they stand after nine rounds:

Wilhelmina 16, Polonia, George Cross, Hellas, Hakoah 13, JUST 12, Melbourne 9, Juventus 8, Box Hill, Slavia 6, Moreland 5, Richmond 4.

CRAVEN A CUP

In the Craven A international Cup at Olympic Park on Sunday, Croatia beat Israel 7:0 in the early game.

The main match, between England and Italy, ended in a narrow 1:0 win for the Englishmen, with Haynes scoring halfway in the second half.

- ADELAIDE -

From T. GIORDANO

CROATIA v. JUVENTUS 1:0
Goalscorers: Welk for Croatia.

A South Australian record club crowd of nearly 3,000 saw Juventus lose their first competition match of the season.

It was a fast, hard and thrilling match packed with incidents.

Welk was fouled by Rusalen and retaliated by scoring to give his team a winning lead.

Juventus desperately tried to equalise while Croatia defended grimly for most of the second half.

BUDAPEST v. ORANGE 2:0
Goalscorers: Matiscak, Cseri for Budapest.

Orange played a resolute game, but lacked both the technique and finesse of their successful opponents.

Budapest scored in the first minute of play.

Orange had many chances, including two penalties which they missed.

BEOGRAD v. POLONIA 2:0
Goalscorers: Marusic (2) for Beograd.

Beograd are showing definite signs of improvement, but Polonia is still in the doldrums.

The game was not a particularly thrilling one.

Beograd were always in control but failed to score more because of lack of punch in the forwards.

LION v. CUMBERLAND 3:0
Goalscorers: Donnelly, Grammar, Lock (own goal).

Although Lion's captain Leitner, one of SA's best players, did not play, Lion were far too good for unimaginative Cumberland.

Lion look set for a big climb up the ladder and as in this State there are three full rounds of competition games they could still make the top four particularly as other top sides keep on defeating each other week after week.

This is how they stand after seven rounds: Juventus and Croatia 12 pts, Budapest 10, Lion and Orange 6, Beograd and Cumberland 4, Polonia 2.

- BRISBANE -

From LEN TODD

At the half way mark in the premiership competition, we find Hellenic, by virtue of its 6:0 win over Annerley, leading Azzurri by 3 points with St. Helens just 2 points further back.

HELLENIC is the only team still undefeated in the competition.

At the bottom of the table the position is not so clear, for the last 6 teams are separated by a mere 4 points, with Grange-Thistle, Y.M.C.A. and Annerley trailing the field with only 5 points each.

BUNDAMBA sharing bottom position on the table, created the shock of the season by defeating AZZURRI on their home ground 4 goals to 1.

Bundamba's new teenage centre Marvin Hocking added another 3 goals to his already good total.

Bundamba won, because Azzurri played "dry weather" football keeping the ball far too close under the wet conditions, whereas Bundamba under the astute leadership of Bob Lawrie swung the ball about and generally adapted themselves to the prevailing conditions.

HELLENIC were never in trouble against ANNERLEY, and toyed with the opposition to win 6:0.

Outstanding success of the match was Andy Tsombaras, Hellenics new 17 year old outside left, who replaced Grahem McMillan (injured); Andy scored one great goal, and was directly responsible for the lead up work in three others.

EASTS UNITED maintained the return to form in defeating BLACKSTONE by 4 goals to 2, and are now in fourth position.

Y.M.C.A. paced it with ST. HELENS at Ebbw Vale, but faded in the second half, and at the finish. The 3:3 half time score was altered to a final of 6:3 in St. Helens favour.

OXLEY just edged out GRANGE-THISTLE, to win 2:1.

Oxleys first goal, scored by former Irish Youth international, Gerry Murray was one of the finest seen on the ground. He beat three opponents, and then with a swift change of feet for his shot, had the Grange keeper going the other way.

MELBOURNE TAKES CUP FROM SYDNEY

The inter-varsity tournament at Armidale last week was marked by the apparent failure of the favourites and outstanding performances by Melbourne and Queensland.

Visiting teams showed their standards of football had risen, but through unfortunate circumstances Sydney have dropped back in the field.

The final table is:

Melbourne 1; Queensland 2; Adelaide, Uni. NSW 3; Armidale 5; Syd. Uni. 6.

Melbourne: Very constructive football, with a strength on the left side of the field.

Queensland: Good all round display, showing the benefit of coaching.

Adelaide: Showed what team spirit can do.

Uni. of NSW.: Relied on speed up the centre which paid off.

Armidale: Lacking in finer points, but showing a determination that will be an inspiration to future teams.

Syd. Uni.: Injuries to star players made the team appear to be disjointed, and as it sometimes happens it was a cloudy night and the stars did not shine.

Newcastle calling

From PAUL MACKENZIE

The Northern Soccer League First Division premiership has sorted itself out after seven series of fixtures, but it is extremely doubtful that places on the points score table at the moment will have any relation to final position after the 18th — and final — series is played.

Walsend, gaining a notable 3:1 win against Adamstown, previously second with Lake Macquarie, on Sunday, has moved to a three-point lead from Adamstown, Lake Macquarie and Awaba.

However, Mayfield United, somewhat of a Cinderella in last season's competition, is only another point away and moving up, with West Wallsend, always a doughy fighter, only one point behind them.

Form in the Northern League premiership is more difficult to follow than it is for Randwick — or Bondi — and happenings in matches one weekend are no criterion for the next.

For instance — Wallsend defeated Mayfield United 9:1; a week before Mayfield United defeated Lake Macquarie 3:1, and a fortnight before Lake Macquarie beat Wallsend 3:0.

Reversals like that are happening all the time — and that,, of course, is all to the good, since it keeps enthusiasts — and critics — right on their toes.

A significant feature is that the standards of the football in the North is improving immeasurably.

The old and traditional kick and rush is virtually out.

For years, matches between Wallsend and Adamstown have produced excitement and argument but little real football.

But it was different on Sunday when the sides gave a near-copybook display, with the ball on the ground, players moving into the open spaces, play swinging from wing to wing with plenty of speed.

But the excitement, and the argument, remained.

Lake Macquarie, reinforced by Eric Schwarz from Prague, although beaten on Sunday by Awaba, has come from last season's obscurity into the limelight and is a side well worth watching.

Schwarz has struck a purple patch, but unfortunately Johnny Sheen, who had a short time with Prague after transferring from Merewether, has failed to click.

John Power, who arrived a fortnight ago from Southend United to play with Adamstown — and with high testimonials from Fulham which wanted to sign him — played in an accustomed position on Sunday and did well enough to give rise to expectation that he will be a star when he settles down.

Cessnock, last season's premier, has struck a bad patch and undignified as it might be for a team which has rarely failed to be prominent in Northern competition in the last 25 years, is in second last place.

Unless it gets a move on, it could be in danger of relegation.

Events in the next few weeks should be interesting and might give one a much closer line on premiership prospects.

Points after the seventh series are — Walsend 12; Adamstown, Lake Macquarie, Awaba 9; Mayfield United 8; West Wallsend 7; Cardiff, Newcastle Austral 5; Cessnock 4; Blacksmiths Rangers 1.

We in the North are still confident of our side making a Sydney team mind its P's and Q's — if ever the pundits in that suburb of ours get around to remembering that soccer is not, and never has been, something as peculiar to Sydney as is Australian Rules to Victoria.

FAMOUS CLUB TEAMS - No. 12

BENFICA (PORTUGAL) - Quick rise to top

"One for all and all for one" — this is the motto of the club that, as we go to press, is fighting in the Berne Stadium for the title of European Champions.

And, win or lose, the "Sport Lisboa e Benfica", as the club is called, has arrived in big-time soccer.

Benfica's rise to the top has been quick and spectacular.

Most soccer fans have never heard of them until a few years ago.

Their run of successes did not begin until after the war.

In 1946 they beat the English Cup winners, Charlton, and in 1949 they defeated, 4:3, the star-studded team of FC Torino.

This was the Italians' last match: next day their plane, returning from Portugal, crashed at Superga, killing all the players and officials.

In the following years they won several Portuguese championships and Cups and also chalked up victories against international opposition like Racing of Argentina, Lazio of Italy and Penarol of Uruguay.

In the 1957 Latin Cup final they lost 0:1 to Real Madrid in Spain, but later beat FC Barcelona 4:0.

Benfica's success has not been due to spectacular "purchases" of stars.

Most of the players come from the club's youth sides, from among boys who, after they reached the age of 14, get intensive training moulding them into skilful footballers.

It is significant that Benfica's juniors have won the Portuguese championship for four years running.

Another important factor in the team's international success is the presence of their Hungarian coach, Bela Guttman.

He joined the club in 1959 after helping FC Porto to the previous league championship.

Guttman kept almost all players, yet made drastic changes in the training methods and the style of the team.

He placed more emphasis on attack as he had done before with his other teams, AC Milano, Sao Paulo and FC Porto.

"I don't care if the opposition scores two, three or four goals so long as we score one more", is Guttman's motto and the team lives up to it.

They play clever, fast, attacking football, scoring prolifically and never retreating in negative defence.

Their road to the final of the present European Cup was not easy.

They had to beat, on the aggregate of two matches, the Scottish Hearts of Midlathians, Ujpest of Hungary, Aarhus of Denmark and Rapid of Austria.

By Paul Dean

Of the eight matches home and away they lost only once (in Budapest) and drew once (in Vienna), winning the six other encounters.

The team's defence is commanded by Germano (full name is Germano de Figueiredo), a centre half with astonishing positional sense, anticipation and skill.

His two fullbacks, Manuel Serra and Angelo Gaspar Martins (known as Angelo), mark their wingers closely, abandoning the outfashioned "zone" defence.

The goalkeeper, Costa Pereira is an acrobat, rated by Brazilian experts as greatest "goleiro" who ever played in the Maracana stadium.

The two wing halves, Jose Neto and Ferdando Cruz, are dynamic players and the keys to the attack.

The forward line is full of stars of international calibre.

Outside right Jose Augusto, considered by the French sportspaper "L'Eqiupe" as the best in Europe, is a fantastic player, able to win matches singlehanded.

He can dribble like Matthews, score like Garrincha and has brilliant pace.

His inside right, Joaquim Santana, and the other inside, Mario Coluna, are among Europe's best.

Coluna is more and more often compared with Di Stefano—a compliment in itself.

Domiciano Cavem, the bearded outside left is not a ball artist like some of his colleagues, but he is a perfectly conditioned athlete whose raids on the goal are always dangerous.

The real star of the line is the team's skipper, centre forward Jose Aguas, an experienced veteran of 30, who in his 10 years with the club, has scored 434 goals in 439 league matches.

The club's fine home ground, the "Estadio da Luz" holds 65,000, most of the seats being occupied weekly by the members of the club's supporters organisation, numbering 55,000 fans.

These, as well as the whole of Lisbon and Portugal, now hope that their beloved "Red Devils" will succeed against Barcelona in the Cup final and win the right to play the South American champions for the world club title.

And, knowing the capabilities and determination of this splendid team, it would not be a great surprise if they achieved their ambition.

NEXT WEEK: NORKOPPING (SWEDEN).

Some interesting points on the interstate carnival 1954 held in Adelaide.

The competition was conducted on a points basis and was won by NSW with 9 points.

West Australia and Victoria tied for second place with 7 points.

NSW defeated Tasmania 10:1; Queensland 5:3; West Australia 1:0; South Australia 6:1; and drew with Victoria 2-all, to win 9 out of a possible 10 points.

Top players who were in that NSW squad were Bill Henderson (then of Granville) and Ron Lord (Auburn), Frank Sands (Leichhardt-Ann.), Kevin O'Neill (Cessnock), Bill Williams (Corrimal), Tom Rowles (Balgownie), Keith Learmonth (Corrimal), Max Walker (Gladesville), and Dave Mc Commish (Gladesville now with Second Division club St George-Sutherland.

MAX TRISIC, Sth. Coast goalkeeper, has taken up basketball to improve his handling.

When Max was playing for Granville, and represented NSW. against Queensland, he was playing basketball.

However, Max had found it increasingly difficult to find enough time to continue and finally gave it up at the end of 1959 season.

LEN QUESTED with his recent display for Commonwealth, and Federation XI has shown just what a great heart he has.

Surely he must be the greatest footballer ever to play in Australia for his age.

JACK HANLEY, now playing with Polonia N.S. 2nd grade, last year played under 18 for Greenwich.

Along with 3rd graders Adamson, Woodward, Stewart, Calfy and brother Fred, he looks like a really good "prospect".

ROMAN KOHLMEYER'S (last season Northside coach) brother was a member of the 1954 German World Champion team which defeated Hungary in the final of the World Cup.

A pity Roman didn't bring his brother with him when he came to Australia.

YUGAL out in front on points in Second Division has three Yugoslav First Division players — Nincevich, Ivanisevich, and Krstulovich.

They show sparkling form to date, especially Krstulovich, the Captain-coach, who looks like establishing himself in the same way Czubala (Polonia) has done.

HAKOAH MEETING

The Chevron-Hilton Hotel in Potts Point will be the venue of an extraordinary general meeting of the Hakoah Soccer Club, on Monday night, June 5.

The purpose of the meeting, one of three to be held during the season, is to give members, supporters, and followers a resume of administrative plans and problems, as well as inviting questions and suggestions.

"It has been impossible to post personal invitations to members, so we hope they will accept this notice in its place", said Mr. Walter Sternberg, Hakoah president.

There will be no attendance or entry charge.

ANY REASONS?

So, the English F.A. team did not play in Sydney.

Many reasons, conflicting reasons were given, and published, none of them convincing.

Nobody is any wiser as to the real reason for the team manager, Mr. J. Bower's, refusal to play.

Australia's disqualification by FIFA could not have come into it as the exhibition match had been sanctioned by Sir Stanley Rous, F.A. Secretary.

The late arrival of the plane?

Well, the English team WAS in Sydney just in time to play the proposed training match.

Had they wished, they could have taken the field for the two 35 minute sessions despite their travel fatigue.

They proved their ability to do this by staging a "nine-a-side" the same afternoon.

However, considering the fact that the team, for prestige reasons, would have wanted to appear at their practicable best, the proposed match could have been put off till 9 p.m. Saturday night.

The Federation having taken into consideration the possibility of late arrival of the plane, had booked the ground for the night as well.

But, the visitors did not want to play.

What WAS the reason?

I personally interviewed Mr. Bowers last Sunday night and, frankly, cannot give you an answer.

I really don't know.

I wonder if Mr. Bowers does . . .

* * *

P.S.: The players did not know anything about the proposed match until Saturday morning, when Mr. J. Bruna rang Mr. Bowers at Darwin and the latter received the phone call in the airport lounge.

The players were not told of any correspondence from us nor from Sir Stanley.

In my private conversations with them they expressed regret for not having been allowed to play in Sydney.

☆ ☆ ☆

A NOTE WOULD HAVE BEEN NICE

The Federation, spurred on by the Press, has done all in it's power to stage the match.

All seemed to have been fixed and pr.

Eeverything was ready and organised and everyone was looking forward to the team's visit.

Yet, if Mr. Bowers held different views on the matter, it still would have been O.K. with us, had he sent a cable, in time, saying: "No, thanks".

"GEOGRAPHICALLY" SPEAKING

Last Sunday morning I took my 7-year-old captain of a one man backyard team to his first soccer training.

After watching him for a quarter of an our I've made a startling discovery: he is not a "Galeczka"... as yet, anyway.

This fact hurt me badly. Joe Galeczka and I were born in the same country.

Just to think that Joe and my son are... Poles apart!

DID YOU KNOW THAT . . .

Bankstown District Soccer Club and Bankstown Supporters Club have decided to make an application to the local council to build a modern grandstand at Bankstown Memorial Oval.

The grandstand will seat 1500, and provide accommodation for a licensed club.

— o —

Budapest's latest gain, Spaniard Joseph Medina, made a fine debut in the seconds against Gladesville-Ryde last Sunday.

For the last two years he has played in Germany in an amateur First Division team.

— o —

Corinthian's and ex-Bankstown fullback, Bill Holland, who recently broke his leg, is 42-years of age.

In his long career he has proved himself to be a fine sportsman.

— o —

In two matches, Hakoah's youthful third-grade goalie, Peter Fuzes, who turned 14 only two weeks ago, has allowed only one goal to get past him.

He was given the chance to play when regular third-grader, John Novak, 15, went up into the reserve team in place of veteran Kurt Spiegel, who has been nursing a foot injury.

Fuzes and Novak are two of a wealth of junior prospects working their way into the senior sides.

Others include Michael Bell, 16; Alex Coutts, 16; Bob Fekete, 15; Gary Stafford, 16; George Sugar, 18; and Clive Thomson, 15, to name a few.

— o —

While playing in the reserve-grade match last week against Polonia, Hakoah winger Bernie Gold's father passed away.

News was received at Wentworth Park a few minutes after the match was completed.

Condolences from Hakoah members and soccer public go to Bernie and his family.

— o —

John Duivenvoorden, reserve goalie for Budapest expects to be back in action in 3 or 4 weeks.

He was injured at training while trying to stop a shot from his coach.

— o —

A visa delay is holding up the departure of Gladesville-Ryde Malayan player R. Bali Krasan.

Second Div. teams in Craven "A" Cup

The teams filling the first four positions in the Second Division after eight rounds have been completed, win the right to take part in the CRAVEN "A" 1000.

Yugal with a four point lead are assured of a place but the other three places will depend on the result of matches played this week-end with Balgownie, Croatia and Blacktown looking the most likely, and Granville and Sutherland-St. George holding an outside chance.

Better Bowling with AMF*
No. 13. FOLLOW THROUGH
* Initials of the American Machine & Foundry Company, originator of automatic tenpin bowling.
The follow through, the final action in the delivery, is just as important as all the other actions of the bowling motion. Many bowlers do everything right, then "quit on the shot" by failing to follow through.
Following through simply means to allow your arm to continue its natural forward motion after the ball has left your hand, until it reaches about shoulder level and straight ahead.
A good, full follow through will direct the ball to the spot you have selected and enables the ball to roll with a better hook.
If the follow through is abrupt or short, you may pull the ball inside of your line. It may cause you to drop the ball, thereby losing accuracy and the necessary "lift"—the pin-getting qualities of a good rolling ball.
Never pull the arm to your left side or angle it off to the right. Always stretch it out in front of you, reaching for the target.
It's important to follow through on every shot, whether you're trying for a strike or a spare.
Remember, bowling's best with AMF
